Check-in

You must check in at least 20 minutes before departure at Kirkwall at the Loganair Inter-Isles office in the main terminal building and at least 10 minutes before departure from the North Isles.

Terms & Conditions

Baggage: All fares include a 15 kgs baggage allowance. Please discuss any special requirements such as outsize baggage or sports equipment with our reservations team at the time of booking. Excess baggage charges will be payable for additional items or weight in excess of the allowance.

Weather: Services may be subject to disruption due to adverse weather conditions. If flights are cancelled or delayed, Loganair cannot accept any liability for loss or extra costs incurred as a result. We strongly recommend that passengers hold adequate travel insurance with cover for such events.

Connections: The Orkney Inter-Isles air service is a "point to point" operation and it is not possible to through-check to or from other flights arriving at or departing from Kirkwall. If you are making an onward connection, you must leave adequate time to reclaim your bags, check in again and clear security for your next flight.

Conditions of Carriage: Travel on the Orkney Inter-Isles air service is subject to the terms and conditions of Loganair Ltd. A full copy of the terms and conditions of carriage is available on request from the Loganair office at Kirkwall Airport.

Schedules: Flight times are subject to change without prior notice or liability.
